SURPRISE VISIT

We write this bit in hopes that our cousin Ruth, now living with her fairly new husband (her first) someplace in Canoga Park will read it and contact us. She and our kookie (we say this with love and reverence) Aunt Margie, her dear mother, paid us a very brief, but welcome surprise visit last Saturday. At that time, as we bade them farewell at the car, because we didn't have a pencil or paper when we thought of it, we asked Ruth to call this week to give us her last name, telephone number and address. . . . Ah, come on Ruth, call! 'Too bad Marge and Joe live clear down in La Habra. . . . She's a delightful character, and one of our guides to non-conformity. She was always going off on some tangent or other, as we remember. We'll never forget the time she came into our very staid mother's home, announced that she was studying Yoga and proceeded to stand on her head. . . . To love Marge one had to understand her. . . . We're certain that everyone understands her now, as she is well loved by the whole family. Ah, we love individualists. We'll never forget Paulo's Aunt Barbara, who was a bookie at one time; but that's another story.

HOPE YOU'RE WITH US

We rattle, rant and rave, and then as we proofread our own copy we hope you are with us. Well, as Popeye says "We am what we am and that's all that we am" . . . So, we can't all be Germaine Harveys — may she rest in peace. By the way have you read her soldier son's column? . . . It's delightful! Her talent for writing has been passed on to him, so the Haney touch will be enjoyed for many years to come, we're happy to say.

HOW NICE

We just had a call from Betty Sinell thanking us for the Cancer Fund Drive plug we put in a few weeks ago, and informing us that it was a much more successful thing this year. . . . We were delighted to hear it, and pleased that she called to thank us for our written contribution. . . . That reminds us, we've contributed a check all right, but we haven't had a check-up. . . . (Couldn't afford one. . . . Better charge one like we do everything else).

NO SUCH LUCK

Well, we still haven't been gifted with an electric typewriter. . . . Not that we know anyone who would or could gift us with such an item, so guess we'll have to set our Bowling League share of the winnings aside in a special electric typewriter fund.

We're determined to get one and to really do some serious story and script writing. Perhaps we will have it by the time we get our lovely big deluxe desk from Glahman's. . . . Only time will tell, but here's hoping.

GOOD CLASS

Charles Miles, electronics production engineer instructor of the advanced soldering evening course at Reseda High School has an outstanding class going. Last year and this, his classes have held the all-time record for attendance. Last week Ron Hagarthy, actor and producer of Scope Films Corp., maker of industrial films, visited the class and showed a film pertinent to the training going on in this course.

Also present were Alan Unger, vice president of Sideco Soldering Co.; Harry Bodell, training administrator of Litton, and Art Gillman of Claude Michel Inc., soldering material specialists.

Scope Films Corp. of Santa Monica Blvd. recently won a blue ribbon in the category of Technical Training and Sales of America at the Film Festival in New York.

This week the Reseda High evening class will hold a soldering contest, the winner to be awarded a soldering iron.

GOOD DAY

Recently our youngest, Chris, and his little buddies in Den 8 of Cub Pack 32, visited the Flying Tiger Airline, and enjoyed themselves no end.

Oh dear, we forgot to give Chris some under shorts to put in some lady's mailbox. . . . He was supposed to put some unmentionables in this Club Scout mother's mailbox over the week end, so she could dye them green along with those of the other members, so they can wear them under Indian duds for their Indian dance at the Scout Craft Fair, May 19 or 20, or both.

Announce Sign-Up for Jewish Youth at Camp Manayim

Mrs. Vera Novkoff and Mrs. Florence Venet, co-chairmen of Camp Manayim, which is cosponsored by the North Valley Jewish Community Center and Temple Beth Torah, announced that registration has started.

Registration is being taken at Temple Beth Torah, Empire 9-0800, or North Valley Jewish Community Center, Empire 2-9600.

The program of Camp Manayim is designed to meet the interests and capacities of the children.

It includes swimming, nature lore, crafts, music, sports, cookouts, overnight trips, dramatics and special trips. Groups are kept to a minimum size.

Graduation Slated at Biola College

Two Valley residents will take part in Biola College commencement exercises on June 4.

They are Gary Stafford and Gene Davidson. The exercises will be held on the college campus, 13800 Biola Ave., La Mirada.

Davidson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Davidson, of Panorama City, and Stafford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gurl C. Stafford, of Mission Hills.

Biola College is one of the four schools of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles Inc.

Synanon Director Invited to Speak at Rotary Meeting

VAN NUYS — Van Nuys Rotary Club will meet tomorrow noon in American Legion clubhouse at 14541 Sylvan St., with special guest announced as Reid Kimball, public relations director for Synanon House.

The guest will present a program titled "The Synanon Approach to Rehabilitation," explaining work at the non-profit California facility dedicated to help for narcotics addicts.

At least two others from the house will give talks. The meeting then will be thrown open for questions and discussion.

Walker Winslow, mental health authority and author of "The Menninger Story," now is at residence at the facility documenting the story for Doubleday.

Robert Case will be chairman of the day for the club.

At Jefferson Savings, you do business with valley people like yourself. . . people who have lived in your community and helped it grow. That's what we mean by an "independent" association.
