

Mel and Betty Sembler, always the good Republicans

an itemization of their family political contributions from 1988 to 2003

Why it is next to impossible to determine the total campaign contributions made by Mel Sembler and others potentially tied to Straight, Inc. story

Sembler family Florida state contributions link

In 2001 Sembler purchased the Italian ambassadorship from George W. Bush for $127,600 link

In 1989 syndicated cartoonist Gary Trudeau lampooned Mel Sembler for buying the Australian ambassadorship from George H. W. Bush for $110,000 (the actual selling price was $127,000)

A proposal for Sembler's purchase of the ambassadorship to Communist China for only $24,000 link

Sembler family federal campaign contributions The table below gives contributions to national level Republican causes from 1980 - 2002 by Straight founders Melvin and Betty Sembler, their sons Brent, Greg and Steve, their daughters-in-law, Liz, Debbie and Diane Sembler, and the Sembler Company. The donations shown are for individual and soft money contributions. Contributions through Political Action Committees (PACs) are not shown. This report is based on filings with the Federal Election Commission as reported by the Center for Responsive Politics and/or by the FEC. Author's note: According to CRP's analysis of Mel Sembler, 1999 - 2000, Mr. Sembler "also wrote a $5,000 check to the Bush-Cheney recount fund, and his company, the Florida-based Sembler Co., contributed $100,000 to the Bush-Cheney Inaugural Committee." Click [here for that analysis. It appears from the below itemizations that these two contributions may not be included below.]
