Dear Mr. Bradbury:

Thank you for your recent letter^{*} regarding allegations of rule violations involving employees of the Department of Children and Families in Lantana. I appreciate your taking the time to bring your concerns to our attention.

Based on the information you have furnished, we are referring your complaint to the Department's Inspector General, Joe Betta, for appropriate review or investigation. For your information, each agency's inspector general is charged with examining such complaints independently of the agency's management.

Again, thank you for writing. I hope we will be able to resolve your concerns satisfactorily.

Sincerely,

Susan M. Nix
Director of Investigations
Office of Chief Inspector General
