Eastern funds

Southeast since last fall, will be flying other children's groups to a city in the Southeast and back home again the 5.000 kids this month and has "a waitusually concerned with flying high, has taken a step to help keep kids from getsame day for $15 a person to show how ing list of thousands," according to Wings Committee member Theta the world of aviation operates. ting high. The Wings Committee, which was Eastern's Wings Committee will organized last January, is comprised of The Wings Committee has made present David Tilley, director of the 16 Eastern employees from various dedonations to such diverse groups as the Atlanta chapter of Straight Inc., a drug Atlanta Chambers Players, the Clayton and alcohol rehabilitation organization partments who meet every six weeks to decide what groups should receive the County Clean and Beautiful Committee for teenagers, with a check for $10,000 and the Butler Street YMCA. Monday night. The money has been raised from Eastern's "kiddle flight" The "kiddie" program, which has flown some 15.600 children all over the program, which flies school, church and survivingstraightinc.com

--- Gerry Yandel